

I Choose

©2016 Linda Allen

G D
Young girl in a parking lot
Em C
Pushing through the screaming faces
Em C
Staring at her blue shoe laces
Em C
She's at the clinic door
 D
Now they hear her roar

G D
You don't get to choose
Em C
You who do not know my story
G D
You don't get to choose
Em C
You will never own this body
G D
What I hold or what I lose
Em C G D Em C
I choose

G D
Woman at the clinic door
Em C
Facing the humiliation
Em C
Just to get some information
Em C
They tried to keep her out
 D
Then they hear her shout CHORUS
G D
Now we're at the door
Em C
With our bodies and our voices
Em C
No one takes away our choices
Em C
Sing it loud and clear
 D
So everyone can hear CHORUS
I Choose

I recently wrote this song for Planned Parenthood, an organization that has provided affordable reproductive health care for 2.4 million people across the county.

They have been under attack around the country. Here's a link about the latest strategy to deny women our legally protected choice:

<https://www.plannedparenthood.org/about-us/newsroom/press-releases/women-lose-the-most-under-trumps-latest-attack-on-medicaid>